FOUR LAKESIDE FAVORITES.

On a slightly improved track at Lakeside yesterday four favorites won, and Pete Clay rode three of them.

It the first event, Integrity II was made favorite, but there was a strong play on Corella. She ran poorly, and Integrity won easily, her dangerous opponents being Miss Star and Beryl Star, both of whom appeared for the first time on the Indiana tracks.

Potsdam was most fancied for the second event at five furlongs, while Joe Mancini had a good following. The Ruddy Bros. colt went to the front in the stretch after Loretta had made the running up to that point, and lasting just long enough to beat Tamerlane, who came fast in the last eighth, by a length, Loretta just getting home a nose in front of Hercules, whose speed has not been hurt by his essays over the hurdles.

May Ashley, the favorite, led all the way in the first of the three-quarter races. Ferryman II, who was second, drew up to her turning into the stretch, and T. Burns, who was on May Ashley, carried him sharply out. May Ashley won by a head from Ferryman, but both had had enough, and Sunny, who was third, was the strongest of the three. Burns was fined $50 for forcing Ferryman out, but the filly was too far ahead for a foul.

There was nothing in the mile race but Dick

Behan, and he simply galloped in front of his field all the way.

W. H. Roller scored with his new purchase, Rubber Neck by Himyar, the first time of asking, Mamie G being the only one to get near her.

Dominico was considered the good thing by the talent in the last race, but he receded in the betting in a remarkable way, and the figure he cut in the race showed the reason why, as he finished last. The finish was between Hillsboro and Fred K. while old Glenoid was a good third, Fred K would probably have

INDIANA TRACKS WIN.

Judge Gillette of the Circuit Court of Lake County, Ind., yesterday rendered his decision in favor of the Indiana race-tracks in the injunction case brought against them by Attorney General Ketcham of Indiana. Judge Gillette's ruling was broad and clear. After interpreting his understanding of the Sellers law and declaring that the business of racing was a lawful one, he held that the Indiana tracks were being operated strictly within the law and denied the injunction.

The state filed notice of appeal from the decision.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Bill McGuigan has sold Chappie, his Order-Hoyden colt to Eugene Leigh. The colt cost McGuigan $25, has earned $2200 or so, and was sold for $600.

The latest ghost story from a racing angle and Indiana runs this way, via Valparaiso: "Friday afternoon two parties representing parties from Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati were looking for a tract of land to open a race track, in opposition to Roby. They took a 30-day option on an 80-acre tract, half-mile east of this city, but would not give names of parties interested in the new associations."

William Thompson, the Australian book-maker in England, won $45,000 against the proposition of naming the winners of the Lincolnshire, Grand National, City and Suburban and Jubilee Stakes. Every one of the 18,000 who accepted the odds fell down on the Grand National, after 50 per cent. had struck the Lincolnshire right. Thompson laid 2,000 to 1 against the four and stood to lose only some $18,000,000 then.

Col. Milton Young, of McGrathiana, has sold to Phil Dwyer for $8,500 six thoroughbred yearlings. They are all colts and by Hanover. The deal was made through M. F. Dwyer, who visited McGrathiana recently. The lot consists of bay colt by Hanover—Lizzie D, bay colt by Hanover—Maria D, chestnut colt by Hanover—Constantinople, brown colt by Hanover—Pomona, bay colt by Hanover—Kempie, chestnut colt by Hanover—Keepsake.
